

Raccoon Club

Hey Norton. I hear the club now has two gals from California as members and they are coming to the banquet to boot! We better keep an eye on the booze.

THE ROYAL ORDER OF THE RACCOONS

Messages from The Grand Poo-Pah

ROYAL FEAST DATE SET

The Royal Order of the Raccoons annual banquet will be held at the Moose Lodge north on Montana avenue. The date has been set as May 22nd beginning with the clubs' social hour at 6 PM. Dinner seating is at 7 PM.

The social hour is courtesy of the Grand Poo-Pah due to rules that state "For the honor of being Grand Poo-Pah, you must buy drinks at the annual banquet".

Dues must be paid by April 15th — the same day taxes are due to the U.S. Government. — in order to attend the banquet which features a Roast of (faux) Raccoon, baked potatoes, salad and vegetables. Check with the Ma Ma Coon, Susie Proul to see if your dues are paid up.

The "fun" co-coordinator for this year's banquet attempted to book Lawrence Welk and his orchestra but found out Mr. Welk has passed on.

GRAND POO-PAH REPORT

Enjoy tonight's lodge meeting in the quarters of Nickels. Last meeting we all enjoyed tasting some new liquors from Young's Marketing representative Brittini. BTW, Brittini thought the club was so much fun she joined and says she will be back March 25th with some more new liquor items, a coconut flavored Tequila and a cherry flavored Southern Comfort. Raccoon members always enjoy tasting new beverages. Be here on March 25th.

EAT! DRINK! SHAKE IT!

Nickels now has shrimp cocktails for only four bucks. Tasty shrimp and crunchy celery surrounded by Steve Farstads cocktail sauce make it a delicious treat. Pickled eggs, turkey gizzards, stick sausage, beef jerky, peanuts and cashews are also available.

Try the shake-a-day for one dollar (fifty cents each pot) and you might win the amount posted on the shake-a-day jar. You can't win without trying the shake-a-day, everyday!

NEWS & VIEWS

LADY CARD SHARK CLASSES

Ladies who wish to learn how to play 7 card Texas Hold-em are invited to sign up at the bar for the event on Saturday March 22 at 7 o'clock.

For $10 — which goes to the dealers — you will be taught the game by professionals.

Susie Rebeck, Grand Raccoonette, says the first 20 ladies interested and paying the fee will enjoy the Saturday afternoon-evening event.

For more information contact Susie or just sign up on the list behind the bar.

Men in skirts (not kilts) will be admitted if seats are open.

WISH THEY ALL COULD BE...

Our two newest members are from Pasadena, California. Please give a big Oooga Oooga to Coyla Dufrene and Tawna Mattarocci. The sister duo are going to fly to Montana in order to attend the annual banquet in May. Raccoon members will surely want to meet and visit with our long-distance Raccoon cousins.

Rita Frankforter officially welcomes new member T.O.

50-50 WINNERS

Karen Lynch and Sarah Kittelson were the big winners at the last meeting.

Speaking of winning... A certain member (Ginny, who wishes to remain anonymous) finally did not win anything at the last meeting, thereby proving our contests are not rigged.
