THE ROYAL ORDER OF THE RACCOONS

Messages from The Grand Poo-Pah

Tonights theme is "Let's make a deal" also known as "C'mon down". Make a deal is tons of fun and you will win prizes as outlined by Ma Ma Raccoon Susie. Your turkey fixings might await you if you are chosen.

PLEASE wear your name tags to make this an authentic event.

Nickels offers a delicious shrimp cocktail for only four bucks. Remember we also have snack foods such as mini-taco's, corn dogs, chicken wings and chicken strips. Our big shrimp dinners can not be beat for quality or the price. We also offer Halibut and Cod plus Finger steaks. Pizza??? Fresh from our ovens to your plate.

Our lodge notes the passing of Pat Kelleher this past Saturday. While Pat was not a member he was a regular every morning at Nickels having one mug of beer and then on his way. Pat was 84 and our morning staff will miss his smile every morning.

Another passing to note is that of John

DON'T FORGET TO THANK (AND TIP) OUR BARTENDERS
RON AND TERI

Martello. John was a liquor representative for many years for brands such as ALPHA INDUSTRIES, Christian Brothers brandy and many vodkas. John found out he had cancer and the cancer took him in a very short time. John moved to a small suburb out of Seattle to be near his family. Our thoughts are with Marilyn Martello, his wife for 50 years this past May.

The officers of this prestigious club remind you that wearing your Raccoon hat or wrap is mandatory to participate in the reduced beverage prices during meetings. THE HATS AND WRAPS ARE A PART OF THE FUN. Have you ever thought what non-members think when they enter the lodge on Raccoon night?

Again tonight, Susie will take some money from the 50-50 drawing to put in our fund for a needing person/family this Christmas. Bob and Nickels will DOUBLE the amount raised.

ONLY 30 DAYS UNTIL CHRISTMAS!!!!

Raccoon gets head stuck in sewer grate, freed with soap

BY Lee Moran NEW YORK DAILY NEWS
Tuesday, November 25, 2014

This raccoon was left seriously red-faced after getting his head stuck in the grate of a storm drain. The cheeky critter was peeking through the bars in Framingham, Massachusetts, last week when he suddenly became lodged, reports

Luckily, passersby spotted the curious creature and contacted animal control officers.

Stormwater supervisor Brooks McCarty and animal control officer Kathy MacKenzie arrived on the scene.

They firstly lathered up the animal's head with dish soap — before they "pulled and pulled and twisted."

The relieved raccoon was eventually freed.

"All of a sudden he just popped out and she let him go and he stood there confused and then just ran up into a tree," McCarty told MetroWest Daily News.
