THE ROYAL ORDER OF THE RACCOONS

Messages from The Grand Poo-Pah

We received word that Hal and Maxine Johnson made it to Arizona in good shape. No doubt Maxine's windfall from the 50-50 drawing helped. Hopefully, you recall they stayed in Helena until after the last Raccoon meeting because they didn't want to miss the fun. Hal and Max used to winter in Ecuador but opted for Surprise, Arizona for this winter.

Last meeting our snacks were actually a dinner of cheese burgers prepared by master chefs, Cas Stenhjem, Rita Frankforter, Michelle Frankforter, Josh Shockley, Jay Moore and Steve Lantz. We also feasted on tacos courtesy of Dan Jacques of A-1 Rentals fame. Member Sara Kittelson put the taco fixings together.

A big Oooga Oooga to all of them.

The Royal Order is all about fun. Remember to shout out Oooga Oooga Oooga whenever you enjoy what's going on, as it's the tradition of our Royal Order.

1st annual Nickels Poker Shootout

A poker tournament on Saturday, December 7, 2013, will offer the largest pay outs ever by NICKELS POKER ROOM.

$500 buy-in with $20 of that registration fee is allowed now in the state of Montana after new Poker law changes.

Contact the poker room for more information. First place will pay out $7,000 or more depending on sign-ups. The tournament is listed to the first 40 players across four tables.

POKER IS THE MOST FUN YOU CAN HAVE WITH YOUR PANTS STILL ON!!!!!!

CHEAP LEGAL GAMBLING

Nickels has several inexpensive and simple gambling opportunities at the bar. None require any skill — just good luck. And all the money goes to the winners. The only profit Nickels makes is the joy on your face when you win!

In-house SHAKE-A-DAY is only $1 for two chances. All you need to do is roll the dice. Get five of a kind and the pot is yours!

The NASCAR And Football Boards require no knowledge of drivers or teams. For $2 you select a square and hope that the convoluted scoring system intersects at your name. Each of several weekly boards pays out $50.

Dear RORCA: The deer are eating members' gardens. My family is very hungry and these darn deer... Well, they eat anything. Making matters worse, the City of Helena insists on having trash cans with secure lids that inhibit our foraging. We are a clean "gaze" and never overturn trash cans or litter like the deer. What can I do?

Ira Raccoon

Dear Ira: The deer were here first and we need to show respect by letting them be them. However, it may be possible for Nickels to leave a trash can lid ajar during our meetings every second and fourth Tuesday. Hint: Check the back entrance.

Dear RORCA: My letters are never answered in your column except the one on never winning the door prizes or 50-50. BTW, I did not win last time again! I have so many questions. Please, please answer them so I feel like a raccoon instead of an ignoramous.

Feeling Unlucky Still

Dear Feeling Unlucky Still: As you can imagine, we receive hundreds of thousands of questions daily. Not only is it impossible to reply to them all but there is also a matter of spa-
